PICNIC ACTORS WILL TRYOUT

Tryouts for persons interested in acting in "Picnic," the first Masquer Summer Theater production, are scheduled for the Masquer Theater, Monday and Tuesday evenings, (May 22-23), at 7:30 p.m.

According to Richard H. James, director of the summer theater, tryouts are open to University students, faculty, and townspeople wishing to participate. They need not be enrolled in the University.

William Inge's Picnic, a classic of American Midwestern life, will be performed June 22-25 and June 29-July 2. Rehearsal will begin evenings as soon as casting has been completed, according to Beverly Thomas of the drama faculty, director of the production.

Anyone interested may contact James or Miss Thomas. Scripts are available now at the drama department office, Fine Arts 201.
